

On. Dott. Sandra Cioffi

President of the Italian Talent Association

Vice President of Telefono Azzurro

Integrated and Institutional Corporate Communications Professional

Expert in child protection and equal opportunities policies

Expert in International Relations

Member of the Italian Parliament in the XV legislature

Group leader of the Foreign and Community Affairs Commission

Secretary of the Italian committee of the Chamber of Deputies abroad

Secretary of the Childhood Bicameral Commission (coordinator of the "Children and the Media" group)

Secretary of the Chamber of Deputies Human Rights Committee

President of the Parliamentary Intergroup for female friends and friends of the sea

After graduating in Law from the University of Naples with full marks she specialized in Integrated and Institutional Corporate Communication, both in Italy and abroad. From 1975 until 2000, she was Head of Communications, International Relations and P.R. at the Regional Council of Campania, where she was also acting Director of the Committee on Culture and of the Healthcare Commission.

Member of the Scientific and Technical Committee of the Campania Region. (2000-2006)

President of MC Congressi, she was a consultant for the communications of many companies and international organizations including Air France, the University of Naples, SCR International, Mare Moda Capri, the Ugo Bordononi Foundation, International Cinema meetings, the De Curtis Prize and the TV network Teleuropa which followed Rete 4.

Consultant to local governments for the establishment of "URP"s (Public Relations Offices) she was the initiator of the project focusing on women "URP DONNA" presented at the "Third Global Forum"

Member of the Planning Group for communications and internationalizing women-owned businesses of the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Budget Planning (1990-1992).

Lecturer for Master's in Integrated and Institutional Communications for Local Authorities organized by Forum and FERPI.

Founding Member of the Italian Public Communications Association and of the Italian Federation of Public Relations (FERPI) where she served for many years in the most important national positions.

Member of the Marisa Bellisario Foundation, of the PWA Association steering committee, of the Women Jurists Association and of the Women and Professions Association.
President of the Italian Cooperation - Indonesia (2006-2008)

Vice President of FareAmbiente (European ecologist movement) and President of FareAmbiente Mare (European ecologist movement also including the seas) (2008-2014).

Vice President of Telefono Azzurro since 2010

President of Italian Talent Association since 2014.

She has collaborated with major magazines specialized in integrated and institutional corporate communication.

She has been a speaker at the UN and in numerous national and international conferences in Beijing, Tokyo, Rio de Janeiro, India, Lebanon, Syria and also in the US and many European countries on issues related to foreign policy, minors, equal opportunities and the internationalization of women's enterprises and SMEs.

Italian delegate in Washington at the "Global Women Business Summit 2000"

Delegate for meetings with the Chamber of Commerce in New York to promote the internationalization of female enterprises from Campania in the US (1997-2000).

She has received many awards and accolades for her commitment to equal opportunities and child welfare, including the award "Telefono Azzurro 2008".

Institutional roles:

In 1980 she was the only woman in Naples to be elected in the local administration where she served until 1996 also in posts on the University and Municipal boards.

In 1996 she devoted herself to Equal Opportunities policies and specialized in gender policy, gender communication and the protection of human rights.

She was President of the Commission for Equal Opportunities in the Campania Region (1996-2000)

She served on the National Equal Opportunities Commission, where she coordinated the "National Women and the Media Network" (2000-2003).

She was appointed to the National Female Entrepreneurs Committee (l. 215) as head of policies for internationalization (2003-2006).

In 2006 she was elected Member of the Italian Parliament.